

Louisiana Senators.

FAREWELL OF SENATOR BENJAMIN.—Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, with Mr. Shields, his colleague, bade farewell to the United States Senate on Monday. Mr. Benjamin said that after the Southern Senators had left there would be still voices raised on that side of the chamber in opposition to force bills—to bills for raising armies and Navies for the dissolution of the South. Mr. Benjamin concluded as follows:

"And now to you Mr. President, and to my brother Senators all of us of this chamber I bid you a peaceful farewell. With many of those for whom I have been radically separated in personal sentiment, my personal relations have been kindly and have inspired me with a respect and esteem that I shall not willingly forget."

Mr. Stephen's resolution making Naval and Military Committees separate, also appointing Committees on Public Lands, Indian Affairs and Territories, was adopted. The Convention then went into secret session.

Attention Spartan Troop.

YOU are hereby ordered to parade at Spartanburg Court House in full Winter Uniform on SATURDAY the 23d inst., for drill and instruction.

The Company having been incorporated and attached to the 9th Regiment of Cavalry by a special Act of the Legislature, all members who are absent from Parade will be returned to the Court Martial.
